

University of Calcutta

This is to notify that the PhD coursework in the Department of Biochemistry will commence from 16th January 2017 onwards. The subjects/topics that will be covered include bioethics, norms of laboratory practices, biostatistics, microscopy and its applications, Omics, biophysical techniques and techniques in protein chemistry. For specific and detailed information the interested RET (in Biochemistry) qualified candidates are requested to contact the office, Department of Biochemistry.