

NAAC's observations about University Library

In December 2009, the National Assessment and Accreditation Council has re-accredited the University with Grade A.

NAAC's observations about University Library is appended below:

Library as a Learning Resource	<ul style="list-style-type: none">a. There is appreciable INFLIBNET facility, large number of books and journals with adequate budget allocation.b. There is effective and significant use of library resources and e-journals with user friendly library operations.c. While the central library is computerized with all facilities, the departmental and campus libraries are yet to be computerised and networked with the central library.
ICT as Learning Resources	<ul style="list-style-type: none">a. University has a dynamic website which is updated regularly.b. Institution has adequate computer facilities for faculty and students.
Best Practices in the Development of Infrastructure and Learning Resources (If any)	<ul style="list-style-type: none">a. The Braille facilities for the differently abled students from the Universities and colleges.b. A well functioning and well equipped administrative staff collegec. Maintenance of heritage documents and manuscripts by the library.